YANKEES BEAT SENATORS TWICE AND DRUB JOHNSON

TO BEAT DODGERS Admirers of Donovan's Team Not Only Pleased to See Wizard's Delivery Solved, but Find Doubts Removed About Cullop's Ability.

The return of Smiling Bill Donovan and his Yankees to the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon was an occasion of great joy to the many thousands assembled there. New York joited Washington out of second position in the close American League race, dropped the Senators to fourth position and assumed third rating for themselves as the result of the fourth taily of the round.

In two runs with passes to Judge and Jamieson. That was his finish. Russell would have stopped the scoring right there had not Home Run Baker fallen down badly on Johnson's grounder with an apparently easy double play in sight. Milan tallied on this bobble, leaving the bases still crowded. Russell fanned Melanted for the base still crowded. WHITTED'S HOMER WINS GAME. Clout in Eleventh Gives Phillies

Victory Over Braves. PHILADELPHIA, June 23 .- A home run by Whitted in the eleventh inning gave the Phillies a victory over Boston to-day, 2 to 1. It was Alexander's thirteenth victory of the season. An error by Compton when he let Stock's single roll from second—in the sixth inning prevented Barnes from beating the Phillies in nine innings.
